CIA man to talk on post-election Canada

Willis C. Armstrong, now at the Central Intelligence Agency and a former assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Colorado Springs World Affairs Council.

He will discuss "Canada Since the Election" at the meeting at noon March 7 in the Broadmoor Hotel main dining room. Attendance is by membership and invitation.

Armstrong began his State Department service in the U.S. Embassy in Moscow in 1939 and concluded it as deputy chief.
